

Education Programs

Zonta International's education programs enable women to continue making great strides and overcome gender barriers in the pursuit of education, careers and leadership roles. Zonta has awarded more than 3,000 fellowships, scholarships and awards through donations made to the Zonta International Foundation.

The Amelia Earhart Fellowship supports women pursuing Ph.D./doctoral degrees in aerospace engineering and space sciences. Zonta has awarded more than 1,630 Amelia Earhart Fellowships, totaling more than US$10.6 million, to more than 1,200 women representing more than 70 countries.

The Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarship is awarded annually to women pursuing undergraduate or master's degrees in business management. Zonta has awarded more than 600 scholarships, totaling more than US$1.4 million, to 460 women representing more than 55 countries.

The Young Women in Public Affairs Award honors young women who demonstrate a commitment to leadership in public policy, government and volunteer organizations. Zonta has given more than 970 awards, totaling more than US$1.1 million, to more than 800 young women from 59 countries.

The Zonta International Women in Technology Scholarship encourages women to pursue education and career opportunities in technology and to take on leadership roles in this field. This pilot program, launched in 2019, awarded more than US$100,000 to 30 scholars representing more than 20 countries.
