

Brand Identity Policy

Zonta members, leaders, and staff at all levels, international, district, ~~regional~~, area and club<sup>1</sup> must use the approved organizational brand identity logos as identified in the Brand Identity Guidelines ~~to be found under PR tools on the website~~ and adhere to the instructions contained in this document.

Zonta International and Zonta Foundation for Women Logos

The Zonta International logo and Zonta Foundation for Women logo consist of the Zonta Emblem and the words Zonta International or Zonta Foundation for Women placed together in a specific format.

Zonta Trademark Registration

Zonta International Headquarters must maintain the trademark registration for the Zonta Emblem and the words Zonta and Zonta International. The following trademarks are to be registered in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, European Union and the United Kingdom:

- The Zonta Emblem (left)
- Zonta International →
- Zonta

~~In order to~~To maintain the protection of ~~its our~~ name and emblem, Zonta International is now required to use the symbol ®, or the language, Registered in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. In the European Union and United Kingdom, Zonta districts and clubs must use the symbol ®. Failure to do so may affect Zonta's right to protect our trademarks.

Clubs that are not in the United States, European Union or United Kingdom do not use the symbol ®.

Organizations, other than Zonta clubs, areas or districts, whose names currently include the word Zonta or the Zonta symbol, are mainly established for one of the following purposes.

Formatted: Font: 11 pt

- a. Qualifying as a charitable organization to which contributions are tax-deductible under pertinent law, e.g., Zonta Club of XYZ Foundation, a charitable organization under §501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code.
- b. Facilitating advocacy activities at a national, provincial or state level, particularly where a country has clubs in more than one district, e.g., Union of [country] Zonta Clubs.
- c. Identifying a club's service project, e.g., Zonta Resource Center.

Formatted: Font: (Default) Arial

The use of the Zonta name and/or symbol other than by a Zonta club, area or district, should be avoided for legal reasons but if used, must adhere to the following requirements:

Formatted: Font: 11 pt

- Have objects consistent with the objects of Zonta International.
- Have bylaws in all essentials acceptable to Zonta International.

The Zonta Foundation for Women or the Zonta International Foundation logo may not be used by districts or clubs for the direct purpose of fundraising, other than on materials provided by Zonta International Headquarters. Use of the logo implies a legal responsibility that the activity is being organized and or supervised by the Headquarters office and that the Foundation will issue tax receipts. Clubs may use their own logo in fundraising and indicate in words if a portion of the proceeds will be granted to the Zonta Foundation for Women.

Campaign logos or temporary icons

From time to time, logos or icons will be created by Zonta International to promote long-standing or temporary campaigns. Clubs, areas, districts and club and supporting members are allowed to use these logos with the understanding that they must not be used to represent any other theme or campaign in or outside of Zonta International.
